

Private Event on Spiritual Leadership

Time: Thursday, October 20 · 6:00pm - 11:00pm

Location: Atelier Noir

510 King St West (King and Brant), Toronto, ON

Hello friends, fabulous people and socially conscious entrepreneurs!

Have you ever felt like you were so close to reaching your goals, but that there was something not quite aligned inside you that was holding you back?

Recently I had the pleasure of meeting One World Academy Senior Faculty member Ananda Giri in San Diego. It was his wisdom and presence that led me to attend his next event in the mountains of southern Turkey.

During that event in Turkey, I got to know Ananda personally, and am delighted he has decided to come to Toronto to do a special event for us here.

Traveling around the world, Ananda shares his message and guided understanding of what it takes to live an extraordinary life and how to find true and ultimate happiness.

This is a unique opportunity for Ananda to be here in Toronto. He has a large presence in the States, working directly with Tony Robbins and other A-list celebrities, speaking on the same topic - the Spirit of Leadership, and what it takes to be a leader in the 21st century.

Like many of us, Ananda left the security of a strong organization to truly fulfill his purpose and life passion, with the faith that he would have a more successful chance of sharing a powerful message with people around the world.

Leaving his previous organization was a huge risk, but Ananda had the belief and support of many, and has now grown his own start-up and built a successful international organization which transforms and inspires the lives of millions.

For many of us, this is not an unfamiliar story or desire in our own lives. Relating to us all, Ananda will share with the group an extraordinary process of self-discovery and freedom. Through discussions and a guided meditation you will experience the practices and processes that lead to greater self awareness and will also lead naturally to shifts in the way you relate to yourself and the world around you.

If you have been invited to this event it is because you are the cream of the crop, young leaders and entrepreneurs in Toronto. I want you all to have the experience of hearing the message that Ananda is sharing with the world.

This is an informal, private event, yet you are welcome to bring friends and family. Please feel free to extend this invitation to others who you think would appreciate and be interested in this type of discussion. There is no cost to attend, but we will be asking for donations to contribute towards the cost of the venue.

The night will flow something like this:

6:00 - 7:00pm Opening with Yvonne Oswald. For more info on Yvonne, please visit <http://www.globalwelcome.com/>

7:00 - 10:00pm Ananda Giri on Spiritual Leadership

10:00 - 11:00pm Mingle

You are a fabulous group of people, and I'm only sending this invitation to those who I believe are truly committed to being successful, and making a difference. Ananda Giri is somebody who will share with you his over 20 years of experience in how he has done both.

The location is fairly small and intimate so please RSVP, and if you want to bring someone along, forward this to them so they can RSVP also.

This is an extremely special opportunity, and I hope to enjoy it with you all!

See you Thursday!!!
